

Diversity Colloquium

Fall 2017

Tuesday, September 12, 2017, 7-8:30pm, Scholar Space, Rod Library

“African American Labor History in Waterloo”

Ms. Niria White, History Major, McNair Scholar

(Sponsored by Dept of History and McNair Scholars Program)

Wednesday, October 11, 2017, 2-4pm, Scholar Space, Rod Library

“Strategies for Teaching about Power and Privilege in the University Classroom”

Dr. T. Elon Dancy, University of Oklahoma

Professor of Education, African & African American Studies, and Women’s and Gender Studies

(Sponsored by the College of Education)

Wednesday, November 8, 2017, 7-8:30pm Scholar Space, Rod Library

“Education and Collaboration: Key Elements for Cultivating and Sustaining Violence Prevention Efforts”

H. Alan Heisterkamp, Center for Violence Prevention, UNI

Annette Lynch, Director, School of Applied Human Sciences, UNI

Sponsored by the Department of Sociology, Anthropology & Criminology,

The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning,

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and The Office of the President

Diversity Colloquium