E-books

In April/May 2012 the Rod conducted a survey about "UNI Preferences for eBooks and Paper/Printed Books." The results are in! Stop by the display outside Collection Management on the 2nd floor to get the scoop.

Scan Me!

Forgot your ID and need to check out a book or laptop? No problem! If you have signed up for the Biometric Scan with the Department of Residence we can use your fingerprint to identify you. Currently we have two stations set up at the Circulation and MSC desks. Sign up is strictly voluntary. Contact the Department of Residence if interested.

Hunger Games

On Sept 21st the library is hosting a fun-filled evening full of games, food, and prizes! Registration opens at the end of August and slots will fill up fast. For more information and to register online, go to: <https://www.library.uni.edu/collections/youth-collection/cedar-valley-hunger-games-iii>. So grab your friends, make a team and register to play! Stop by the exhibit case on the main floor for scenes from previous years. Can you handle the Hunger Games?

Movin' On Up...

You may notice a few changes in the building as you return from break. The Interlibrary Loan desk is now located on the 1st floor where the Reserve desk used to be. The MultiService Center desk is now on the 2nd floor next to the Circulation desk. The Reference collection has been relocated on the 2nd floor in the northwest corner. Panther Prowler has been improved and renamed "OneSearch!" There is new carpet on the 2nd floor. The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning has joined us on the 3rd Floor. The Art and Music Collection has been renamed the Fine and Performing Arts Collection. If you need any assistance, just stop by any service desk.
