Rod Notes
help for the stalled

Volume 4, Number 2

October 2011

Are you looking for tutoring or help in some of your courses? Visit the A-Team on Sunday nights from 6-9pm in Rod Library. The A-Team provides help for students in math, science, personal wellness humanities, and business courses as well as assistance with college reading, study strategies and writing.

A-TEAM Tutoring
Sunday Nights
6-9pm

The tutoring is on the first floor of the Library, just down the hall from the MultiService Center. The A-team is sponsored by the Academic Learning Center.

My Library Account

This cool feature on the Rod Library webpage allows students and staff to access their account information online 24/7. "My Library Account" allows you to keep track of items you have checked out, renew items, save searches, create purchase alerts and maintain your reading history. Login by clicking on "My Library Account" from the homepage. Enter your last name and your UNI ID number preceded by 000.

Lost :(and Found :)

Hey!!! Did you lose something??? We just may know where it is!! The Circulation Desk has a Lost and Found with items ranging from Books to clothes, Keys to USB drives and more! If you believe you left something here, stop by the desk and check it out.

Snack Foods

Snack foods are allowed in Rod Library. Snack food is defined as "packaged foods that can be eaten dry and with the hands."

Examples of snack foods include candy, chips, nuts, dried cereal or fruit and granola bars. Items not considered snack foods are those that are messy or aromatic such as pizza, sandwiches, salads, yogurt, fresh fruit, ice cream or foods with dipping sauces. No food is allowed in Special Collections or around locked collections in Art & Music, Youth and Maps.

Thanks for your cooperation!!
