Rod Library Newsletter

Rod Notes
help for the stalled

Welcome Back!

How We Spent Your Summer Vacation

We have missed you here at the Rod, so welcome back!! Some things have changed while you were away for the summer. We have tried to make this transition as seamless for you as possible.

Lockers moved to first floor

Computers added to study rooms 370-372

Assistive Tech moved to 281

Youth Collection Relocated

The Youth Collection has temporarily moved to the east side of the first floor. The third floor youth area is being renovated and is scheduled for completion in the Spring. Look for updates on exact moving dates through the semester. If you have any questions about the Youth Collection stop by first floor and talk to Yolanda or Sandy in the Youth department.

Mobile UNISTAR

A mobile version of UNISTAR, the Library's online catalog, is now available on your mobile device. You can do a keyword search for library materials while you are on the go.

Great Features:

- Book jackets for many items
- Email records to yourself
- Text records to your cell phone
- Save catalog items to preview later

Scan this graphic or go to http://m.library.uni.edu to check out this interface.

Upcoming Events

Sept 23-25
Family Weekend

Sept-Oct
"Live Like a Student" Seminars Room 324

Nov 13-30
Harry Potter Exhibit

EBRARY!

Rod Library has been adding an increasing number of electronic books and other e-publications over the last several years. This year, Rod Library used student technology fees to purchase an electronic books collection from a company called ebrary. It contains electronic books covering many areas of the UNI curriculum, including several thousand business and economics books from publishers such as Harvard University Press, several additional university presses, Amacom, Wiley, and Business Expert Press.

Ebrary books are entered in UNISTAR, the library catalog, like print books. Look for the link in the middle of the UNISTAR library catalog record to connect to the electronic book.